How to make module areas available to students.

The module areas are set as closed by default (shown as unavailable). To open the module to students, select the module that you want to open from the list on the right hand side.

Scroll down to the control panel and click on customisation and then click on properties.

Scroll down to make module available by clicking on yes under set availability.

The module is now open and available to students.